LANDGRABBERS' CLAIM

Given an Airing Yesterday Before Judge Hanckel.

Mr. W. E. Swann's Application for a Mandamus Argued Pro and Con—Property Transfers Admitted to Record.

The "land-grabbers" case was argued before Judge of the Corporation Court A. R. Henckel yesterday. No decision has been rendered as yet.

Mr. W. E. Swann, of Powhatan county, through Attorney Justis, of Richmond, asked for a mandamus compelling Clerk L. Royster, of the Corporation Court, to accept from him the sum of $9.34, delinquent taxes in payment for a house and lot on Falkland street, for which he had filed a claim. The case was heard in chambers. Messrs. R. H. Baker and son, and Judge W. H. Burroughs appeared for the present owner of the property, Mrs. Barraud, Judge T. H. Wilcox for Clerk Royster and Mr. William Justis for the petitioner. A general demurrer was entered for the defense.

Counsel for the defense argued that the process issued at the time of the filing of Mr. Swann's original application for the property, March 30th, not having been served until July 23rd, was null and void, since more than sixty days passed in the interim.

Mr. Justis, for the petitioner, claimed that the law requiring the process to be served within sixty days after its issuance is simply directory, and is to protect the "land-grabbers" only.

In answer to this contention counsel for the defense claimed that the applicant should pay the back taxes at the time he files his application with the clerk of the court. Otherwise, it was contended, that the application should be held to be void.

Mr. Justis demurred and said he did not see wherein his client's rights would have been made safer by his depositing the taxes at the time the application was filed.

Counsel for the defense showed that on May 4th, only a few days after Mr. Swann filed his application, Mrs. Barraud paid $2,300 for the property, and that she did not know there were back taxes on it until November 29th, the day her attorneys paid them.

Notice of Mr. Swann's application was served on Mrs. Alice F. Scott, the former owner of the property. It was argued that it would be a great injustice to give Mr. Swann a deed to the property for only $9.34, while it cost the owner $2,300 only a few months ago.

Mr. Justis said that it might be a hardship, but that the property had been sold to the State for two years before the Swann application was filed, and that Mrs. Barraud had every opportunity to learn the facts in the case, as did Mr. Swann, by examining the delinquent tax list. Mr. Justis said that the State became the absolute owner of the property two years ago, and that Mrs. Barraud in purchasing it, secured the privilege only and not the right to redeem it.

Counsel for the defense raised the point that the time allowed the defendant to redeem the property had not expired when Mrs. Barraud's counsel paid the taxes Wednesday last. A statute was cited, which the defense claimed gave the right to Mrs. Barraud to pay the taxes at any time after the expiration of the four months. The applicants paid the same.

Mr. Justis, in reply, said that a succeeding statute modified the statute quoted by counsel. He claimed that after the expiration of four months from the serving of the process the applicant has five days in which to pay his money.

Mr. Swann, it is understood, will file application for about a dozen other pieces of property, if the decision is in his favor.

ADMITTED TO RECORD.

The following property transfers were admitted to record yesterday by Clerk of Courts Royster.

E. L. Hall to Vernon G. Culpepper, lot with improvements fronting 28 feet on the east side of Cumberland street, between Queen and Willoughby streets, and three brick buildings in the rear; $3,500.

Harmon H. Boone to Vernon G. Culpepper, property fronting 84 feet on the south side of Cedar lane; $2,100.

A. W. Cornick to Vernon G. Culpepper, property fronting 94 feet on the east side of Camp's court; $2,500.

John H. Fendley to Stith S. Bridges, lots with improvements, Nos. 9, 11, 15 and 17 Marsden's lane; $3,000.

Orphans Extend Thanks.

The little orphans of St. Mary's Asylum tender grateful thanks to the kind friends who, through Mrs. Hodges, so liberally supplied a real Thanksgiving dinner for them. They also thank the little girls of the primary class of St. Mary's School, who, for several years past, claim the privilege of contributing refreshments for Thanksgiving Day. May God bless them. The Sisters in charge of the Institution are under many obligations to Mr. O'Connor for lumber to build a new fence.

DELINQUENT LAND TAXES.

"LAND GRABBERS" WILL BEGIN HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY.

The first "land grabbing" here under the amended "Land Grabbers" act will commence next Wednesday. As previously mentioned in the Virginian-Pilot, there were several pieces of land sold to the Commonwealth in 1898 for delinquent State taxes which on the 6th instant will be available for the land grabbers if the delinquent taxes are not paid prior to that day. However, after the land grabbers' claim is put in, the original owners of the property will still have four months in which to redeem the same, provided they pay the applicant a fee of $5 and reimburse him for the expense incurred in filing his claim.

Yesterday's notice in the Virginian-Pilot caused about a half dozen owners of property sold to the Commonwealth to redeem the same. Many other owners will probably get ahead of the "land grabbers" since they have two days in which to pay back taxes.

QUALIFICATIONS.

Mr. H. W. Willis, deputy clerk of the Corporation Court, qualified yesterday as deputy clerk of the Court of Law and Chancery, to act in this capacity in the absence of Deputy Clerk Coleman.

In the Court of Law and Chancery yesterday C. W. Cake was appointed guardian of James G. Cake and qualified under a bond of $201.

GRANTED A DIVORCE.

In the Court of Law and Chancery Mrs. Nora C. Boggs was granted a divorce yesterday against her husband, J. V. Boggs. The grounds were desertion.

FOR SWEET CHARITY

Norfolk Singers Will Present the Beautiful Opera "Patience."

In January at the Academy of Music—For Benefit of Both Hospitals—To Be Presented at Richmond Also.

Lovers of music will be pleased to hear that Gilbert & Sullivan's beautiful opera "Patience" will be presented in the near future at the Academy of Music. Several presentations will be given, and the proceeds from the opening night will go to the rebuilding fund for St. Vincent's Hospital and the building fund for the Norfolk Protestant Hospital.

The arrangements for the series of presentation are in charge of Mrs. Laura De Russy Berry, now of Norfolk, formerly well known and favorably known on the professional stage with the Pike Opera Company and other standard musical organizations. After several presentations of the opera in Norfolk, it is the intention of the projectors to give one performance in the new Academy of Music at Richmond.

Scores have been sent for and are expected to reach Norfolk during the coming week. Rehearsals will then begin at the Academy of Music and continue until some date in January, 1900. The opera will probably be given about the middle of latter part of January.

The cast is nearly complete, but two of the leading parts have not yet been filled. Mrs. Laura De Russy Berry will fill the leading female role, "Lady Jane." The best talent in Norfolk has been secured, and with these well-known ladies and gentlemen, properly cast, the production promises to be the musical success of the season here. The noble object of the work will tend to enlist a hearty co-operation, and the liberal patronage of the general public and the the co-operation of the Academy will probably be tested.

A special feature, now being arranged for, is a large chorus of dragons. It is hoped to secure at least fifty good voices for this chorus.

Miss Kearney to Speak Today.

At the Y. M. C. A. Hall this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, Miss Belle Kearney, of Mississippi, will address a meeting for ladies and gentlemen. Her subject will be, "Why Are the Wheels Clogged?" Miss Kearney is a speaker of national reputation, and one of the most prominent lecturers of the W. C. T. U. In addition to her address there will be a special musical program.

At 7:30 o'clock to-night Miss Kearney will speak at the Cumberland Street M. E. Church. Her subject at this meeting will be, "Sir, We Would See Jesus."

Masquerade Party.

A largely attended and very enjoyable masquerade party was given Thursday night at the home of Miss Nellie Hill, Park Place. There were about eighty young ladies and gentlemen present in costume.

Many of the costumes were very beautiful, but as usual, most of the masks aimed at comical effects. The company played games and enjoyed vocal and instrumental music until midnight. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Capitoline.

Cures La Grippe, Pains, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, etc. Guaranteed. 15c and 25c. a bottle.

A great many persons are daily looking over the property of the Port Norfolk Investment Company, which is regarded as the "Ghent" of Portsmouth. The work of laying the granite sidewalks is progressing rapidly, and the lot is selling fast. This is the finest suburban property, and is being sold on the installment plan at very low prices. See advertisement in another column. 11

The Empire Estate.

Is by far the best sheet steel and cast iron air-tight heater on the market. For sale by Williamson & Sykes, 563 and 565 Church street, near Queen. Cash or credit. Also a full line of cook and heating stoves. no26-11

A look through our line of suitings will put you on what to wear. You know how we make and fit our garments.

CITY PARK RAILWAY

Norfolk Street Railway Co. Withdraws Request to Enter it.

President Williams, Feeling That the Public Misunderstands Position of His Company, Asks Park Committee to Reconsider Its Action, Recommending that a Franchise be Granted.

The question of having an extension of the street railway in the City Park, running along the park just inside the park limits, from Church street along the southerly side; along the water front on Tanner's Creek, and along the northerly side back to Church street, is one of great interest to the people of Norfolk.

In regard to the proposed park railway the Norfolk Railway and Light Company, by Mr. R. Lancaster Williams, its president, yesterday afternoon sent the following letter to the Park Committee of the Council:

"Gentlemen: Referring to the action of your committee relative to the lighting of the park, and the granting of the privilege to the Norfolk Street Railroad Company to extend its tracks along the edge of the park, I can but feel that the position of our company has been misunderstood by the public. You will recall that your committee, acting for the best interests of the city, opened negotiations with us for the purpose of securing benefits for the city, but the public seem to be under the impression that we started the matter and desire to invade the park and lessen its advantages to the people. Under these circumstances, I desire to notify you that we do not desire to have your report confirmed, and under the circumstances would not accept the privileges which you recommend. In doing this I appreciate that the misunderstanding of our position has not been in any way brought about by yourselves, and wish to express my thanks for your courtesy, and my earnest belief that what you desired was for the benefit of both the park and the people who frequent it."

PARK COMMITTEE.

A representative of the Virginian-Pilot last night interviewed a member of the Park Committee on the subject. He stated that the idea of a railway in the park to run back to the water front, originated in the committee, whose idea was to secure better railroad facilities for the patrons of the park.

Y. M. C. A. Services.

Public meeting for ladies and gentlemen at 4 o'clock, addressed by Miss Belle Kearney, of Mississippi, the national lecturer of the Y. W. C. T. U. The special music will consist of a vocal solo by Miss Florence Rayner, leading soprano of St. Luke's choir, and violin solo by Prof. Chas. Boggs, of the Norfolk Conservatory of Music. The Association Orchestra will accompany the opening service of song. All citizens are cordially invited.

Meeting of the Boy's Gospel Army at 2:30. Doors close at 2:45. Service lasts an hour. All boys in the city cordially invited.

Chinese Farm and Garden.

Some of the enterprising Chinamen of Norfolk show a disposition to forsake the wash-tub and smoothing-iron and devote their time and energies to agriculture. They have secured land near the old toll gate, and will raise vegetables suited to the Chinese palate and market. The proposed venture is in the hands of three Celestials, who believe they can make it pay.

A Chinaman and an American have for several years conducted very successfully a vegetable garden of eight acres near Wilmington, N. C.

Stein-Block Clothes.

We would call attention to the advertisement of Drewry's Clothing Store, which appears in another column of this issue. Mr. Drewry has the sole agency here for the celebrated Stein-Block ready-to-wear clothes, which have become famous for their perfect fit, general appearance, and excellent wearing qualities. Purchasers would do well to give Mr. Drewry a call. His furnishing goods are fully abreast of the times. Mr. Drewry carries as fine a line of goods as can be purchased anywhere, and anyone purchasing a suit of Stein Block will not miss it.

Masquerade Party.

A largely attended and very enjoyable masquerade party was given Thursday night at the home of Miss Nellie Hill, Park Place. There were about eighty young ladies and gentlemen present in costume.

Many of the costumes were very beautiful, but as usual, most of the masks aimed at comical effects. The company played games and enjoyed vocal and instrumental music until midnight. Refreshments were served during the evening.

NOTICE!

The grocery and provision business heretofore conducted at No. 155 Botetourt street under the name of the GHENT MARKET was sold to Messrs. Taylor & Co. on December 1st, 1899, who will continue the said business at the same stand.

All persons indebted to the GHENT MARKET or having claims against the same emanating previous to Dec. 1, 1899, are requested to settle their accounts with or present their claims to DAVID GOODMAN, room 304 Columbia building, Norfolk, Va. de3-11

REMOVAL NOTICE!

I would respectfully announce that I have removed my pharmacy to my new building, corner Clay and Claiborne avenues. In this connection I desire to thank my friends and patrons for their liberal patronage in my old store, and extend to them and the public a cordial invitation to visit me in my new one, where they will always find me ready to welcome and serve them. I will also carry a larger and more complete stock of drugs, drug sundries, toilet articles, etc., as I have far better facilities.
